Licensed Advanced Alcohol Drug Counselor -Supervisor
LAADC/LAADC-S

For applications submitted on or after January 1, 2017

Thank you for choosing CCAPP

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PORTFOLIO SUBMISSION

Please print and read this document in its entirety. You will also need to print and refer to the CCAPP Credentialing Handbook, available for download at ccapp.us/credentialing_handbook, for any questions that you may have about how to complete this application. You will be required to submit all documentation as outlined on the “Documents to Submit” page. Please review all information to ensure that it is complete and accurate. Any missing information will delay the processing of this application and will require the submission of additional fees to re-review the application.

1. Once your portfolio has been compiled, you will need to make copies of each document, except your official transcripts, for your records. Please do not open your official transcripts; they will not be considered official if opened and you will then be required to obtain new transcripts for any transcript you have opened. Any documents submitted to the CCAPP office become the property of CCAPP and will not be returned to you.
2. Your portfolio will be reviewed within two to four weeks upon receipt by the CCAPP office and you will be notified via email if you have any missing documents.
3. If your portfolio is approved, you will receive email notification within two to four weeks of receipt of the application by the CCAPP office. Your documents will not be processed prior to this time frame, so please leave adequate time for processing when making career decisions.
4. If your portfolio is incomplete, you will have six months to submit the remainder of any missing documents. If you do not submit all documents within six months, you will be required to submit a new portfolio and will be required to pay the portfolio review fee again.
5. If your application requires an exam, upon approval of your application, you will be pre-registered for the IC&RC ADC Exam. You will receive two emails, one from registrations@isoqualitytesting.com with the information on how to log in and schedule your exam, and the other from the CCAPP office with important instructions about taking the exam. Please check your spam email for this information.
6. When you have taken and passed the exam required for your certification, you will be issued your certificate within four to six weeks from the date of the exam completion. If your application does not require an exam, your certificate will be mailed to you within 30 days of application approval.

SCOPE OF PRACTICE
LICENSED ADVANCED ALCOHOL DRUG COUNSELORS

Purpose:

To assure a consistent standard of quality education, training and experience for licensed alcohol and drug counselors. Licensure is necessary to safeguard public health, safety, and welfare, and to protect the public from services delivered by non-licensed alcohol/drug counselors, and unprofessional conduct by licensed alcohol/drug counselors.

Requirements:

A Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor is a person who possesses and utilizes a competency-based core of knowledge and skills to assist alcohol/drug-affected persons, and those affected by the alcohol/drug affected person; a LAADC is the highest level within the career path as an Alcohol/Drug Counselor. He/She has a master's degree, has completed the education, practicum, internship and has successfully passed the advanced alcohol and drug counselor written examination. The Licensed Advanced Alcohol Drug Counselor, regardless of position on the career path, must renew licensure every two years by adhering to the: payment of the renewal fee, ascribing to the Code of Conduct and Scope of Practice at each licensure renewal period; and completing a minimum of 50 hours of continuing education with a minimum of six hours specific to ethics in each renewal cycle.

Role of the Licensed Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor:

"Alcohol and drug counseling" means a process involving a clinical relationship between a client who is experiencing addiction, dependence, abuse of alcohol or other drugs, or other symptoms that relate to substance use and a counselor or therapist trained to provide that help to address that addiction, dependence, or abuse. Addiction counseling includes the professional and ethical application of basic tasks and responsibilities, including all of the following:

(A) Screening, this is the process by which a client is determined to be eligible for admission to a particular alcohol and drug treatment program. (B) Initial intake, which is the administrative and initial assessment procedures for admission to an alcohol and drug treatment program. (C) Orientation, which is the act of describing to the client the general nature and goals of the alcohol and drug treatment program, including rules governing client conduct and infractions that can lead to disciplinary action or discharge from the program. (D) Alcohol and drug abuse counseling, including individual, group, and significant others. The utilization of special skills to assist individuals, families, or groups in achieving objectives through exploration of a problem and its ramifications, examination of attitudes and feelings, considerations of alternative solutions, and decision making as each relates to substance use. Counseling shall be limited to assisting a client in learning more about himself or herself for the purposes of understanding how to effectuate clearly perceived and realistically defined goals related to abstinence. Counseling is limited to assisting the client to learn or acquire new skills that will enable the client to cope and adjust to life situations without the use of substances. (E) Case management, which is the activities that bring services, agencies, resources, or individuals together within a planned framework of action toward achievement of established goals. Case management may involve liaison activities and collateral contacts. (F) Crisis intervention, which is providing services that respond to an alcohol or drug user's needs during acute emotional or physical distress, including, but not limited to, referrals for assessment of the client's need for additional psychological or medical treatment for client behaviors that signal risk or prolonged distress. (G) Assessment, which is the use of procedures by which a counselor or program identifies and evaluates an individual's strengths, weaknesses, problems, and needs for the development of the alcohol and drug treatment plan. (H) Treatment planning, which is the process by which the counselor and the client identify and rank problems needing resolution, establish agreed-upon immediate and long-term goals, and decide on a treatment process and the resources to be utilized. (I) Client education, which is providing information to individuals and groups concerning alcohol and drug use and the services and resources available. (J) Referral, which is identifying the needs of the client that cannot be met by the counselor or agency, as well as assisting the client in utilizing the support systems and community resources available. (K) Reports and recordkeeping, which is the documentation of the client's progress in achieving his or her goals. (L) Consultation with other professionals with regard to client treatment or services and communicating with other professionals to ensure comprehensive, quality care for the client.

Setting for the delivery of services:

A Licensed Advanced Alcohol and Drug Counselor may conduct counseling of clients with alcohol/drug addiction or dependence, their family members and others in hospitals, agencies, private practice or other facilities where alcohol and/or drug services are delivered; as part of an interdisciplinary team in hospitals or other agencies working alongside professionals licensed by the State of California under the Medical Practices Act, the Social Work Licensing Law, the Psychology Licensing Act, or the Marriage, Family and Child Counselors Licensing Law; or an independent setting (private practice) at a professional office location. To be licensed at the reciprocal level the individual must live or work within California at least 51% of the time.

Non-Application:

Nothing in this Scope of Practice shall be construed to constrict or limit the practice of any other professional licensed by the State of California under the Medical Practice Act, the Social Work Licensing Law, the Nursing Practice Act, the Psychology Licensing Act, or the Marriage, Family and Child Counselors Licensing Law. Nor shall the Scope of Practice apply to any priest, rabbi, or minister of the gospel of any religious denomination (when performing counseling services as a part of his or her pastoral or professional duties), or to any person who is admitted to practice law in the state, or who is licensed to practice medicine when providing counseling services as part of his/her professional practice. Nor shall this Scope of Practice apply to an employee of a governmental entity or of a school, college, or university or of an institution both non-profit and charitable if his/her practice is performed solely under the supervision of the entity, school or organization by which he/she is employed, and if he/she performs such functions as part of the position for which he/she is employed.

STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING AND AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE INFORMATION

I understand that additional information may be necessary to continue the CCAPP licensure process. I hereby authorize the release of my employment and/or personal reference information to any authorized representative of CCAPP. Further, I give consent for CCAPP to release information and/or my photo regarding my CCAPP status to prospective employers, members of the public, or State or County SUD administrators or designees. I recognize there is no expiration date on this request.

I understand that intentionally making false or misleading statements on this application will result in my being declared ineligible for licensure. I understand that It is my responsibility to submit course descriptions for classes taken in programs that are not approved by CCAPP. I understand that after submission, the application/portfolio, exam and fees become the property of CCAPP. All fees are non-refundable. California regulation indicates the minimum requirements for certification. CCAPP CADC I, CADC II, LAADC, and LAADC-S far exceed the requirements of the regulation and thereby meet these requirements. I have read and understand the processes as outlined in the Credentialing Handbook describing policies and procedures and other pertinent information about licensure.

I understand and agree to cooperate with any requests of CCAPP with regard to processing this application; this includes submitting name changes, address changes, phone number changes, employer address changes (if applicable).

I understand and agree to comply with the CCAPP Code of Conduct and California AOD Counselor Code of Conduct as outlined in this document. I understand I must comply with the CCAPP Code of Conduct, California Regulations and CCAPP Scope of Practice contained herein, as well as statute and regulation of the Department of Health Care Services Title 9 Regulations and any other applicable provisions of law. I also understand and consent to the release of information pertaining to registration, certification, licensure, any ethical violation(s) and/or sanctions as part of the process of becoming and maintaining a CCAPP designation as a member, registrant, certified counselor, or licensed counselor. Information may be disclosed to the California Department of Health Care Services, to California state-approved certification bodies and/or employers. I further agree not to sue CCAPP relative to the licensure/examination process and I agree to indemnify and hold CCAPP and its respective officers, directors, agents, and employees harmless from any and all liabilities, losses, costs, damages, and any other expenses which CCAPP or its officers, directors, agents, and employees may sustain or incur as a result of or arising from the licensure examination process. I agree to reimburse CCAPP for any attorneys' fees and costs incurred as a result of my breach of this hold harmless provision. I agree to cooperate with complaint investigations and supply information requested during complaint investigations unless such disclosure of information would violate the confidentiality requirements of Subpart 2, Title 42, Code of Federal Regulations. I understand failure to comply with the Ethics Review Committee or DHCS may result in immediate suspension and/or revocation of my registration, certification or licensure until such time that I comply. I understand that CCAPP's website will include the term "pending" until such time a complaint is resolved and/or sanctions are completed by respondent; suspensions and revocations will be posted on the public database (website). I understand I do not have to be a member of CCAPP to become certified by CCAPP.

I understand and agree I must continue to keep liability insurance at all times while I am licensed; failure to do so will immediately place my license on suspension. If liability insurance lapses and is not obtained within 30 and in full affect, CCAPP Credentialing will revoke my license. I understand that licenses offered by CCAPP Credentialing are not governmentally sanctioned and are issued by CCAPP Credentialing which is not a state, federal or other governmental entity; I also understand that these non-governmental licenses do not imply or allow me (the individual holder) to diagnose any conditions as specified under applicable state or federal law. These licenses are not issued or mandated by state or federal law.

Please do not inquire about results for applications submitted less than six weeks.

STUDY GUIDES:

A study guide for the IC&RC Examination can be purchased at the CCAPP online store at <https://www.ccapp.us/memorabilia/buy/>. Each exam attempt requires an exam fee. It is important to prepare carefully.

RETAKING THE EXAM:

Applicants who fail the exam may retake the exam 60 days after the first date of sitting for the exam. Beginning May 1, 2016, applicants who fail the exam must wait 90 days before retaking the exam. Multiple failures may result in remediation requirements. Please review the Credentialing Handbook carefully for more information.
